

Hello, friends!

As we welcome a new year, we want to celebrate the milestones that we accomplished together in 2020.

2020 was a year full of "firsts":

First 13-Episode Season

First Golden Possum Award Honoree

First Four Mini-Episodes

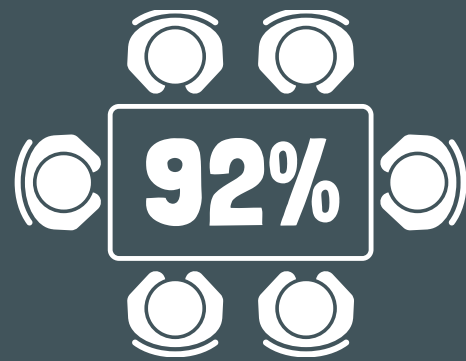

First National Telly Award

First Nine News Stories

We also had other impressive numbers:

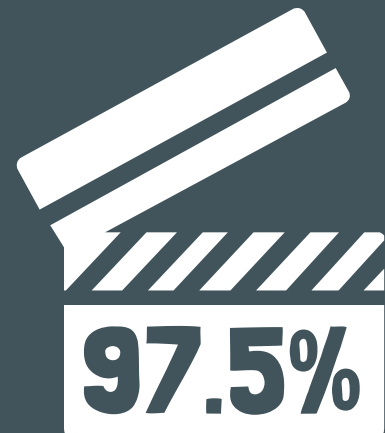

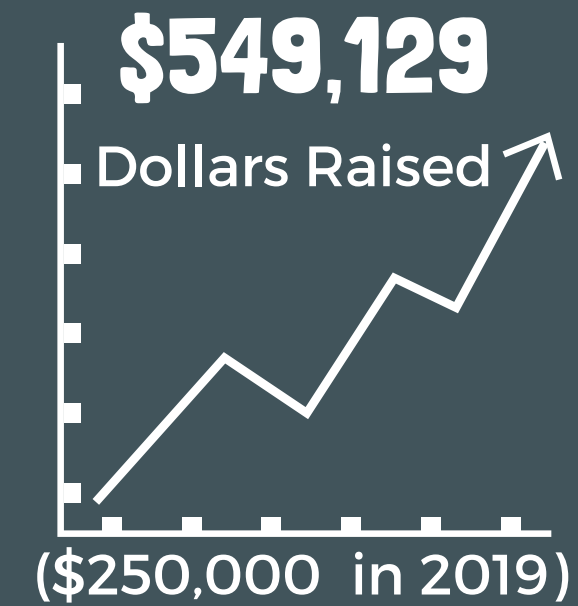

BIPOC Advisory Board Members

Minutes of Content

Arts, Cooking and Reading Resources

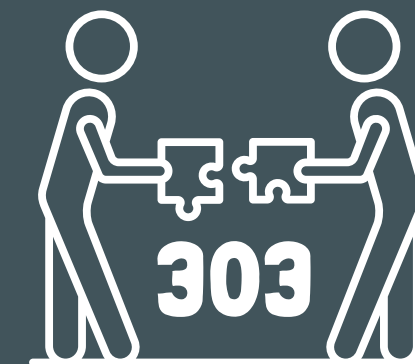

BIPOC On-Air Talent

1,112 Social Media Followers

1,002 Views of our BLM Mini-Episode

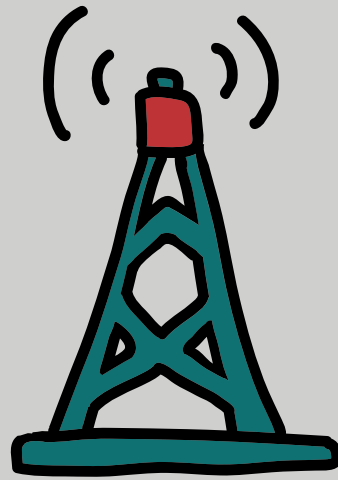

303 Individual Donors

We are excited (and ready!) for what 2021 can bring:

Film Season Two

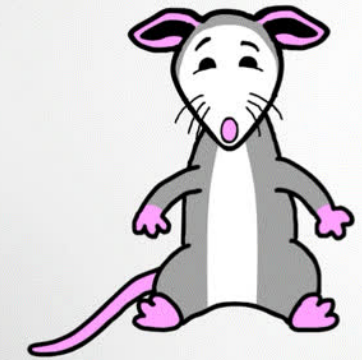

Add TV Stations

Triple Viewership

Increase Funding

More Fun!
More Possum!

"It is so important for children who look like me, are from a different country or identify differently in the world to understand that they have a voice and that they can work to be the best them that they can be."

— Judge Nicole Gaines Phelps, King County Superior Court and first recipient of the Golden Possum Award

We proudly encourage and prepare our BIPOC children to take their rightful place in the world.

We hope that you will join us.
